Sisters,

June 6, 2024

District Convention time once again in "The City Beautiful" Orlando with our host chapters Ahepa 161 and Daughters of Penelope Pelion 189.

Convention chairs Stella and Jim Sirks, Ahepa Chapter President Dean Bolaris and Daughters President Linda Winchester planning every detail to ensure a wonderful weekend, as our delegates work to continue the success of Citrus District 2.

The Daughters District Lodge and the PDG Advisory Board worked as a team sharing new and old ideas to move towards making the District more progressive and cost effective.

Our recommendations and proposals for the coming year.

- Ad hoc Committee to address the following legislative proposals for 2025 District and onto the National Legislative committees for approval. This committee will be headed by the PDG's
- Board of Governors: Clarification on the eligibility and duties of the members
- Penelope of the Year: Mailing of the application to eliminate Return receipt to only mailing by Priority with tracking. A National ad hoc was formed to revamp the application and will present at the National Convention in 2025.
- Past District Governor's Advisory Board to be added to the Constitution in addition to the Past District Advisor position.
- District
- Rising printing costs: to maintain the chapter per capita of $125.00 the following will be implemented effective in the coming year.
- Our website has been updated and more user friendly. A tab for Convention minutes will be available by date and will not be printed for each delegate. One copy per chapter will be printed for convention.
- The following forms. Past District Governors/Convention City, Penelope of the Year and Scholarships will be available on the website and not printed.
- The Convention Packet will continue to have the In Memorial, Convention agenda, Delegate list, Budget, Statical report and Governor's report.
- Beginning with the current convention District Lodge Officers will give a verbal report of their year, much like the verbal Chapter reports.
- End of Year Chapter Report will be made as a fillable PDF, emailed to each chapter.
- Correspondence will be sent and received from the District Gmail and no longer to personal emails of the District Governor or Secretary. Citrusdopd2@gmail.com

Sisters, each year in the minutes the same requests and recommendations are proposed. The upcoming Lodge wants to follow through so the District can reach its next level of success.

A thank you to the "Team" for their Dedication and Respect to the Order and our District 2 Sisters.

As Always With Love,
In Theta Pi,
Connie Pilallis, PGP
